Andante moderato

Music by

JACOB HENRY ELLIS

Composer of

"Sing I Heard One Sunday Morn"

Autumn leaves turning Crimson and gold,
Summers last

Soft tranquil splendor,
Gently unfold,
Rosettes

Dear love, when twilight pales the sky,
Bright gleams of sun gold linger on high,
Let me enfold you close to my breast,
Ever I hold you dearest and best.

Gold en the meadow, the world gleams its fair-est, Sea-son so tran-quil, the bright-est and rar-est. Per-fect the hour ere sweet blos-soms with-er, Love leads to par-a-dise in Au-tumn time, in Au-tumn time.
