TRIO

P Hail to the flag, boys. Ever tried and true. The flag, our fathers lived, the flag that stands for all we hold so dear and true.

Red and White and Blue,
For it represents the land of liberty! And its starry folds are seen on every sea.

Hurrah, Hurrah, The flag that stands for you and me. So Hail to the flag, boys, Ever tried and true. The flag, our fathers loved, Tis Freedom's starry banner;

Hail to the flag, Red, and white, and blue, The flag that stands for all we hold so dear and true.
