

WILLIE PELLIS.

WALTZ SONG AND REFRAIN.

Words by WALLACE H. BECKER.

Music by JACOB HENRY ELLIS.

Piano

mf

Moderato.

1. Of all the
2. His hair of
3. His der - by

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

peo - ple in this land There's none brush - es so that can com - pare With an i - deal youth, so Pad - er - ews - kie length crown. He He tips - es so that ev' - ty - las - tic of the brown of two inch crown. He He tips - es so that ev' - ty - las - tic of the when neat - whom lat - est he gay, He's cut Quite meets

dan - dy girls
al - ways known
faints with ec -

de - clare.
to wear;

He's the mod - el
It is his en -
He's the en -

boy - light
to the of
in the the

ev' - ry a -
strut vil - lage

town bout lads,
And All He
par - else makes
ents goes them
point in nigh
with the in -
pride. shade;

To For As
Wil - lie jaun - ti - ly Pells whose ly he style is saun - ters
ex - cells a sight
In When With

ry - he's on
thus he's on
En - glish walk - ing

coun - try - side.
pa - rad.

try - side.
pa - rad.

Wil - lie Pells, _____ king of swells, _____

REFRAIN.

f

54

54

54

54

— You're the village fashion plate, With an air free from care, There's 63

63

63

63

none in this land who can with you compare Always neat and so sweet, For your style most surely

73

73

73

73

tells, All the girls say you're charmingo extent quite alarmingh dashing Wil - lie Pells,