Valse moderato

The piano introduction consists of two staves of music. The right hand begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 3/4 time signature. It starts with a series of chords and a melodic line. The left hand begins with a bass clef and a 3/4 time signature, playing a steady accompaniment. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is placed at the beginning. A poco a poco rall. (poco a poco rallentando) instruction is written above the right hand staff towards the end of the introduction.

The first line of the song features a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written on a single staff with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a 3/4 time signature. The lyrics are: "The whole world gleamed so bright and fair, Sweet-heart, when first you came My
For you and me a lone, dear heart, The sun-beams seem to shine Love's". The piano accompaniment is written on two staves (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat and a 3/4 time signature. A dynamic marking of mf con molto espress. is placed below the piano part.

The second line of the song continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is on a single staff with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a 3/4 time signature. The lyrics are: "path seemed filled with ro - ses rare, When love first breathed your name; From gar - den seems a world a - part. Just your world, dear, and mine: The". The piano accompaniment is on two staves (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat and a 3/4 time signature.
