

For You, Dear.

Words by
S. CARTER SCHWING.

Music by
WM. CHRISTOPHER O' HARE.

Moderato quasi andante. $\text{\textcircled{X}}$

Voice.

Piano

5 p ten.

In life we all must bat tles fight, Must win or lose as My ev' ry hope, my ev' ry dream, The work I do with 8 cresc.

fate de crees, But be we wrong or be we right, hand or brain, Tis all i spir'd by love su preme,

cresc.

11 mf

'Tis al ways you I love to please, Each tri al that is
 With out you 'twould be all in vain, No mat ter what the 11 mf

14 f piu accel. ten. ad lib.

un der gone, Each dif fi cul ty I sub due; The for tunc the fu ture bring, Of fail ure or of hon or new; E'en tho tunc the 14 f

14 colla voce.

17 p Piu lento.

or the fame I've won. Is all for you, for you dear:
 world my prais es sing. 'Twill be for you dear, all for you:

17 L.H. mf p

21 Refrain. (Slow and with feeling.)

What e'er I've tried, what e'er I've done Has been for you, — for —

21 p

25

you, dear, Each bat ble fought, each vic t'ry won, Has been for you, — for — you, dear; When e'er I've fail'd I ne'er for 31 got, That you were al ways, al ways true, dear; And 34

28

so I strug gled falt 'ring not Re mem b'ring twas for you, for you, dear.

rall.

colla voce

L.H.

D.S.